All that is open to us is to accept or negative the Amendments of the Lords, or to agree to an Amendment which can be engrafted on the Bill.—Army Regulation Bill, [208] 1400
Amendment on Amendment—Committee of Supply—Moved, "That Mr. Speaker, &c.:" an Amendment moved (Mr. White:)—Sir Tollemache Sinclair rose to move words additional to the said Amendment. Mr. Speaker intimated that the hon. Member could not move an Amendment upon the Amendment of the hon. Member for Brighton, [206] 1445
Amendments—Relevancy of Amendment—Committee on Army Regulation Bill; the Committee report Progress: Moved, "That this House will to-morrow, at Two of the clock, again resolve itself into the said Committee;" Mr. Bentinck proposed to move, "That the House, at its rising, do adjourn until a quarter before 4 o'clock to-morrow." Mr. Speaker said—This is not a suitable Amendment. The Amendment must be relevant to the Question when the Committee shall sit again, [206] 1582 Committee—Instructions—Elections (Parliamentary and Municipal) Bill. Order for Committee read: Mr. G. Bentinck rose to move an Instruction to the Committee with relation to the prevention of bribery and corruption at elections. Mr. Speaker said, it was unnecessary for the hon. Member to move such Instruction, inasmuch as it would be in his power in Committee to propose any clauses or Amendments on the subject of bribery which he might desire. In the present instance an Instruction was unnecessary, and therefore it was contrary to the Rules of the House that it should be moved, [207] 402

Committees—Power of the House as to a Joint Committee—The Prime Minister having moved a Resolution for the appointment of a Select Committee on East India Finances, an hon. Member desired to move to add to the Resolution, "and that such Committee be solely composed of Members of the House of Commons:"—Mr. Speaker said—The only thing the House can do is to appoint a Committee of this House: it cannot appoint or prevent the appointment of a Committee of the other House: therefore the Amendment cannot properly be put, [204] 776
Committees—Practice of the House in regard to the "setting up" of Committees, [206] 1266
Debate—Explanation—A Member is not entitled to interrupt another Member who is in possession of the House, for the purpose of explaining, without that Member's consent.—Spain—The "Tornado," [208] 343, 1190
Debate—Limitation of Explanation, [205] 178
Debate—Effect of agreement to Motion, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." Moved, "That Mr. Speaker, &c." An Amendment moved. Question, "That the words, &c." put, and agreed to. An hon. Member cannot afterwards move a Resolution of which he had given Notice.—Supply, [205] 1525; [208] 430
Debate—Effect of Amendment on Motion, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." An Amendment moved and agreed to:—Mr. Speaker said that the agreeing to the Amendment superseded the Motion that he should leave the Chair.—Supply, [205] 151
Debate—Effect of Amendment on Motion "That Mr. Speaker, &c." on subsequent Notices of Amendment—Mr. Speaker said—the Government had thought fit to revive the Motion for going into Committee of Supply. The Motion, so revived, was revived in its entirety, and the hon. Member who proposed the next Amendment stood in exactly the same position as if he had proposed his Amendment at the commencement of the evening when the Motion that Mr. Speaker now leave the Chair was first made, [205] 1515; [206] 322
Debate—Limitation of Argument—An hon. Member addressing the House on the Order of the Day for Committee on Prayer Book (Tables of Lessons) Bill was proceeding to suggest certain alterations in the Rubric. Mr. Speaker doubted whether so wide a field of subject ought to be introduced in a discussion of a Bill for a limited object, [205] 1459
Debate—Relevancy of Argument to Question, [207] 1541, 1542
Debate—Premature Discussion of a Bill—An hon. Member is not in Order in entering into a detailed description of a Bill which is not yet before the House, and which is on the Paper for a later hour.—Patent Laws, [204] 1532; [208] 1090

Debate—Premature discussion of a subject as to which Notice of Motion has been given for a subsequent date, [207] 500, 1640
[See infra — Supply — Discussion of Estimates]

Debate—Reference to reports of debates in the same Session—Mr. Speaker: The noble Lord is not in order in reading any report of what has taken place during any of the debates of the present Session, [207] 905; [208] 1604

Debate—Reference to debate in the other House — Mr. Speaker: This House has Rules for itself, and they must be upheld. It is no justification of a violation of these Rules that something has been said in the House of Lords. The House must abide by its own Rules; and for a Member to pursue an argument used in the other House during the present Session is contrary to the Rules of this House.—Army Regulation Bill—Lords Amendts. [208] 1682

Debate—Moving the Adjournment of the House —Mr. Speaker explains the rule which concedes to a Member under certain circumstances (there being no Question before the House) the privilege of speaking by moving the Adjournment of the House, [207] 1636; [208] 773

Debate—Right of Reply—When a Motion is made for the Adjournment of the House—an original Motion, no other Motion being before the House—an hon. Member has the right of reply. — Parliament — Knights of Shires, [207] 1350

Debate—Supply—Discussion of Estimates—The House having resolved itself into Committee of Supply, for the purpose of considering the Civil Service Estimates, on Motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair" an hon. Member offered some remarks having reference to the Army Estimates. Mr. Hunt rose to Order;—the Army Estimates were not to be taken that evening, and he wished to know whether the hon. Member could call attention to them in the manner proposed? Mr. Speaker ruled that the hon. Member was in Order, [205] 307

Debate—Votes in Supply—A Vote in one sum on account of the Civil Service Estimates, embracing seven classes and 150 different items, was resolved in Committee of Supply. On Report of Resolution, Sir Robert Peel asked whether it was competent for any hon. Member then to take each of those 150 items and seven classes separately and discuss them seriatim? Mr. Speaker said the Vote on Account was one Vote, and the right hon. Member might make any observations he thought fit which bore upon it, and which was relevant to the subject-matter, [206] 1368

Debate—Order—Unparliamentary Language—An hon. Member having said that the hon. Member for L. had deliberately based his argument on a false issue; and being called to Order; Mr. Speaker said the expression used by the hon. Member was improper, [205] 1743

"The hon. Member had passed a somewhat impertinent censure——" ["Order"] Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member will, I am sure, recognize that it is quite out of Order to characterize as "impertinent" the conduct of a Member of this House, [206] 1685

Debate—Order—Time for taking notice of disorderly words—Mr. Speaker: I did not hear the exact words used; but the words were not taken notice of by any Member at the moment when they were uttered, the reading of the terms of the Motion have intervened, and it is now too late to call them in question.—Harbours of Refuge, [205] 403

Notices of Motion—What Notice insufficient—Mr. Speaker said: I wish to notice a practice which has lately prevailed of merely putting on the Paper a Notice to the effect that an hon. Member will draw the attention of the House to a certain subject and move a Resolution. Now, this is not enough to fulfil the obligations of Notice. The object of Notice is that Members should know beforehand what is to be the subject of consideration on a particular day . . . .

Notices of Motion—What Notice sufficient —and in order to fulfil the Rules of the House, it is necessary that the terms of a Resolution should be placed on the Paper at least a day before it is intended to be submitted to the House.—Gibraltar—Armament —Motion for a Return, [205] 774; [207] 143

Order—Reference to comments in newspapers on debates in this House. It is out of Order and contrary to the Rules of this House to read extracts from newspapers referring to a debate in this House.—Protection of Life and Property, &c. Bill, [206] 1330

Order—Alteration of Notices of Questions—When Questions are brought to the Table it is sometimes found necessary to revise them, inasmuch as they often contain argumentative matter, and in other ways transgress the Rules of the House. It is desirable, when it is thought necessary to introduce any amendment into them, to communicate, if possible, with the Members who have given notice of them; and if it be found not possible to make such communication, the officers of the House undertook to make such Questions as conformable as possible to the Rules of the House, [206] 468
Mr. Speaker again fully explains the practice, [207] 1881

Order — Lords Amendments — Time for considering—In answer to Mr. M'Laren, Mr. Speaker said that the rule was that the Lords Amendments on Public Bills should be appointed to be considered on a future day, unless the House should order them to be considered forthwith. In the present case it was directed that the Lords Amendments should be considered forthwith.—Bank Holidays Bill, [206] 1118

Order—Meetings of Select Committees—The Select Committee on Business of the House having proposed to meet again on a certain day (without any fixed adjournment), and afterwards the Chairman, with the concurrence of certain of the Members, intimated to the Members that the Committee should meet at an earlier date, question was raised as to the regularity of that proceeding. Mr. Speaker said, it was a rule of the House that when public Notice has once been given of a Motion, the day fixed cannot be altered—at least anticipated. In this case the Chairman was acting to the best of his judgment for the convenience of the Committee, and in accordance with the desire of such Members of the Committee as he had been able to communicate with; there had, moreover, been no fixed adjournment of the Committee. And Mr. Speaker said that there did not appear to him to have been anything contravening the Rules of the House, [205] 688

Privilege — Money Clauses — Intoxicating Liquors Licences Suspension Bill — Lords Amendts. considered. The Lords had inserted an Amendment for suspending Grocers' licences—Question, Whether this was not a violation of the Privileges of this House?—Mr. Speaker was of opinion that it was; and ruled that the Amendment inserted by the Lords interfered with the money clauses of the Bill, and must be struck out, [208] 1736
Privilege — "Men of the Law" — An hon. Member having addressed a Question to Mr. Speaker, on the subject of the alleged disqualification of "men of the law" to sit in this House as Knights of Shires, Mr. Speaker says that it is rather a question of law, which might have been addressed to the Law Officers of the Government, [207] 1346
Questions—Limitation of Questions—An hon. Member having put a Question to the Prime Minister, Whether he did not consider it desirable to prohibit, by express enactment, the exportation of arms, &c. to belligerent states?—Mr. Speaker said, that the hon. Member, in asking the opinion of the Prime Minister upon a point of such great importance, had passed the prescribed rule relating to Questions, [204] 1764
Questions—Questions ought to be restricted to statements of facts.—Army—Volunteers and Hyde Park, [206] 1602 — Loss of the "Megæra," [208] 842
Question—Latitude of Remark in putting a Question—A Member, in putting a Question, is at liberty to state any facts which are necessary for the clear understanding of the Question; but he must not enter into other matters. Nor may an hon. Member, in asking a Question, state his personal opinion.—Army—Campaign Manœuvres in the Autumn, [208] 781, 783
